

Published based on Belgrade, Serbia - An Ancient Capital City With A Modern Feel

Belgrade, Serbia - An Ancient Capital City With A Modern Feel

The capital of Serbia is the ancient city of Belgrade which dates back to 4 B.C. The rich extensive history provided here also produces the opportunity for endless sightseeing and exploration. You will, however, need a passport to travel to an international destination like Belgrade, Serbia. Many people are frightened by the prospect of having to navigate the procedural maze in order to get a passport but if you don't know how to get a passport, many online websites are waiting to assist you.

The internet has been instrumental in totally renovating the process of getting a new passport or even a renewal. If you need to get a child passport fast, expedited services are readily available online and can be accessed from the convenience of your own home computer. There is no longer a need to stand in long lines and try to figure out what you will need to successfully accomplish getting a passport.

Now that you know that you don't have to fear the passport process, we can move on to enticing you to visit the fascinating city of Belgrade, Serbia. No itinerary would be complete without visiting some of the most famous religious sites the city has to offer. The Cathedral of St. Sava is the largest orthodox temple in Serbia while the Belgrade Cathedral is certainly one of the most beautiful. The oldest church in Belgrade is the Church Ruzica and contains a must see chandelier made entirely of bullets, swords and bayonets.

The Sava River is home to Ada Ciganlija, a small island with a man made lake situated in the center of it. Every vacation needs a trip to the beach and this location provides the perfect opportunity to relax in the sun. Cafes and restaurants abound so you will have no trouble enjoying your lunch or dinner. Perhaps a good idea would be to request a packed lunch so you can enjoy a picnic on the waterfront. An entire day can be filled with a visit to the Belgrade Zoo spans 17 acres and is home to over 2,000 animals.

Exploring Belgrade on foot is probably one of the very best ways to really see the city. If you are looking for a shopping opportunity, visit Skadarlija or Knez Mihailova Street. If you travel to the end of Knez Mihailova, you will discover Kalemegdan, which is a beautiful park. You will also find the Belgrade Fortress located here. Beautiful cobblestone streets and traditional Serbian music can be enjoyed here as well as a variety of shops and restaurants.

No visit to Serbia's capital city would be complete without visiting the National Museum. Art lovers will be treated to over 40,000 masterpieces from all over the world and from various time periods. The famous House of Flowers contains the tomb of a famous Yugoslavian leader, Josip Broz Tito and a museum also found here showcases pieces many of his personal property.

If you are looking for a vacation that will provide a lot of opportunity for exploration and enlightenment, Belgrade would be a great choice. But remember, you must have a passport to accomplish international travel. If you aren't sure you know how to get a passport or if you need a child passport fast, be sure to access an online passport website to assist you with all of your passport needs.

You can also find this article published on Belgrade, Serbia - An Ancient Capital City With A Modern Feel, and on the tag pages getting a new passport, home, how to get a passport, opportunity, sava river, Serbia.