This resort is top notch, in fact it is five stars and it can be found off the south coast of Goa next to the Sal River. One of the best things about this hotel for me is that it is located near a fishing village which means plenty of fresh fish. The hotel has 78 acres of tropical grounds and has 185 guestrooms. The spa specialises in something known as warm stone massages and has a big variety of ayurvedic therapies.

This hotel is a very modern one and can be found in the city's Juhu district which very nicely looks over the Arabian sea and the beautiful Juhu beach. The hotel has a large amount of treatment rooms and has heat experience areas that have saunas, Vichy shower rooms and yes even a steam room.

Another one in Goa and it would seem that Goa is a great destination for those spa hotels. It would seem that most of the treatments here are massage based ones but there are also many facial and body too. This one is really not too far from the airport and it consists of 45 acres.

If you are feeling stressed then you are most likely in need of a bit of a break, get out there to a spa hotel for relaxation! You deserve a break every once in a while you know!
