

Published based on USAF C-17 Globemaster III Crashed in Alaska

USAF C-17 Globemaster III Crashed in Alaska

Today a USAF McDonnell Douglas C-17A Globemaster III, assigned to the 3rd Wing at Anchorage-Elmendorf Air Force Base crashed near the AFB. At the time of the accident, the C-17 was on a training mission for the upcoming Arctic Thunder air show.

All four crew members have been killed. Three of the crew were members of the Alaska Air National Guard and the other was active-duty Air Force from Elmendorf.

Source: USAF

You can also find this article published on USAF C-17 Globemaster III Crashed in Alaska, and on the tag pages 17a globemaster, c 17 globemaster, Crashed, elmendorf air force base, Force, Globemaster.