

Published based on Why Choose a Holiday Villa in Lanzarote?

Why Choose a Holiday Villa in Lanzarote?

A winter holiday in the sun in Lanzarote offer families a great self-catering option for their holiday and what brighter choice than one of the many Lanzarote villas? Spacious, private and often with their own swimming pools; villa holidays are perfect for a family getaway or a group of friends looking for something individual with a home from home feeling.

With the year round cool weather in Lanzarote holiday accommodation is available throughout the whole year and with more hours of sunshine in the south of the island holiday villas in Playa Blanca have become very sought after. Playa Blanca is only a 25 minute drive from the airport and with the smooth road conditions there is no need to rely on airport transfers. There is easy access to shops, bars and restaurants on foot from most holiday villas in Lanzarote makes Playa Blanca ideal for a self-catering Lanzarote villa holiday.

All over Lanzarote there are private villas available for holidays. Most have private swimming pools, some have jacuzzi s, hot tubs, satellite TV, internet connection, games rooms. The other main advantages of renting private holiday villas in Lanzarote are:

- Privacy - Holiday villas offer the best option for privacy for your family. There is no sharing the swimming pool or sunbathing terraces and no racing to get the best spot around the pool.
- Space - Renting a whole villa gives much more space than an apartment or hotel room. There is all the extra space of living areas and outdoor space to relax in. Great for families with children.
- Freedome In a self-catering holiday villa you set your own timetable.
- Mod Cons - Private villas come equipped with the little things that make a holiday feel like being at home. Most have TV's, dvd players and satellite tv for you to use and the children to play games. More are now offering internet connection for their guests' use and many have luxury items like jacuzzis and hot tubs.
- Price - Contrary to what many believe renting a private holiday villa can actually work out cheaper than a hotel or apartment as the price is shared out between the whole party. Looking slightly out of season can turn up some real bargains too.

If you prefer the countryside why not book one of the rural villas in Lanzarote. Dotted around the island are villas just as well equipped and luxurious as those in the main tourist resorts but situated in the smaller villages of 'real' Lanzarote. These make a perfect, quiet base for a relaxing break or a holiday that is a little bit different.

Ideal for families who enjoy the freedom and control over their own holiday, as well as for groups maybe celebrating a special occasion or just wanting a relaxing time in their own space, a villa holiday offers something for everyone.

So, with all the benefits of villa holidays it is no surprise that more and more people return year after year to luxury holiday villas in Lanzarote.

You can also find this article published on Why Choose a Holiday Villa in Lanzarote?, and on the tag pages catering lanzarote, holiday villa in lanzarote, home, Lanzarote, private holiday villas, villa.